Dear Joanie and Lois,

It was truly a pleasure to work with you during the three Action Racket Lab Theatre Workshops for Young Adults held at the Jefferson Market Regional Library of The New York Public Library during the fall of 1999 and the summer and fall of 2000. As you can imagine, it is sometimes difficult for librarians to locate programming possibilities specifically targeted for a teenage audience. Your presentation and style is perfect for this age group; the teens' total involvement in creating and performing the final piece is very empowering, and they discover so many new forms of creative expression. It didn't take long for even the most shy to start leaping, singing, and emoting with all the rest! What a wonderful introduction to the world of improvisational theater!

I wish you continued success in your acting and teaching careers and hope to work with you again in the future. Should you like to use me as a reference, I may be reached at (201) 372-0895 (evenings).

Sincerely,

Margaret Mellett, MLS
